4/ Where a contract of employment is terminated in accordance with Article 24(4) and 29 of this Proclamation, the worker shall be paid, in addition to payments under Sub-Article (1) and (2) of this Article, an amount equal to the worker’s average daily wage of the last week of service multiplied by 60.

41. Compensation for Termination of Contract of Employment without Notice

1) A worker who terminates his contract of employment in accordance with Article 32(1) of this Proclamation shall be entitled, in addition to the severance pay referred to in Article 40 of this Proclamation, to a payment of compensation which shall be thirty times his daily wages of the last week of service. This provision shall apply to a worker covered by the relevant pension law.

2) However, where the termination is based on Article 32 (1) (b) the worker shall, in addition to severance pay, be entitled to compensation of his daily wage multiplied by ninety. This provision shall also apply to a worker covered by the relevant pension law.
SECTION FOUR

CONSEQUENCES OF UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT

42. General

Where an employer or a worker fails to comply with the requirements laid down in this Proclamation or other relevant law regarding termination of a contract of employment, the termination shall be unlawful.

43. Reinstatement or Compensation of a Worker in the Case of unlawful termination

1/ Where a contract of employment is terminated because of those grounds mentioned under Article 26 (2) of this Proclamation, the employer shall be obliged to reinstate the worker; provided, however, that the worker shall be compensated if he wishes to quit his employment.

2/ Without prejudice to Sub-Article (1) of this Article, where a contract of employment is terminated contrary to the provisions of Articles 24, 25, 27, 28 and 29 of this Proclamation, the labour dispute settlement tribunal may order the reinstatement of the worker or the payment of compensation.

3/ Notwithstanding Sub-Article (2) of this Article, the labour tribunal may affirm the termination of the worker upon payment of compensation even if the worker requests for re-instatement where the tribunal is of the view that the maintenance of the particular worker and employer relations, by its nature or due to the controversy of the parties concerned, is likely to give rise to serious difficulties. Similarly, where a worker who, after obtaining judgment of reinstatement declines to be re-instated, the tribunal may order the termination of the worker upon payment of compensation for the inconvenience he sustained having regard to the nature of the work and other circumstances of the case.
The compensation to be paid under Sub-Article (1), (2) or (3) of this Article to a worker who is not reinstated shall, in addition to the severance pay referred to in Article 40 of this Proclamation, be:

a) In the case of a contract of employment for an indefinite period, 180 times the average daily wages and a sum equal to his wage for the appropriate notice period in accordance with Article 44 of this Proclamation;

b) In the case of a contract of employment for a definite period or for piecework, a sum equal to the wages which he would have obtained if the contract of employment has continued up to its date of expiry or completion of the work; provided, however, that such compensation shall not exceed 180 times his average daily wage. The provisions of sub-article (4) of this Article shall also be applicable to a worker covered by the relevant pension law.

Where the First Instance Court orders the reinstatement of the worker in accordance with Sub-Article (1) or (2) of this Article, the court shall order back-pay of wage for a period not exceeding 6 months. Where the decision of reinstatement is confirmed by the appellate Court, it shall order back pay of wage for a period not exceeding one year.

44. Exceptions

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 43, non-compliance by the employer with the notice requirements specified under Article 35 shall only result in the payment by the employer, wages in lieu of the notice period.

45. Liability of the Worker to Pay Compensation

1/ A worker who terminates his contract of employment in disregard of the provisions of Article 31 or 35(2) of this Proclamation shall be liable to pay compensation to the employer.
2/ However, the compensation payable by the worker in accordance with Sub-Article (1) of this Article shall not exceed 30 days’ wages of the worker and be payable from the remaining payment due to the worker.
